

"The moon is full, the cabins are cold, and the exit is a long way off."

Isolated and hunted, you are the last counselor standing at Camp Blood. With the bridge out and your friends gone, you must navigate six lethal zones using only your instincts and adrenaline. A masked killer stalks your every move—survive the night and reach the Old Pier before midnight, or become his next victim.

I. SETUP

Stats: Start with 8 Stamina  and 6 Adrenaline .

Level: You start at Survivor Level 1.

Grid: Use a 4 x 4 grid for the current Area. You start at the Entrance (Bottom-Right ). To survive and advance to the next Area, you must reach the Exit (Top-Left .

II. HOW TO PLAY

Movement & Exploration

Navigate the 4x4 grid one square at a time to reach the Exit (Top-Left). Upon arrival, you survive the current zone and advance to the next of the six lethal areas. To reset, return to the Entrance (Bottom-Right) and mark the corresponding checkbox to track your progress. This cycle continues until you complete Area VI (The Old Pier) and trigger the Final Showdown. Each time you enter a new square, roll 1d6 for the Exploration Table:

ROLL 1D6	ENCOUNTER	EFFECT
1	The Slasher	Roll 2d6. Success if at least one die is Greater Than (>) the Area Difficulty (DA).
2	Bear Trap	Roll 2d6. Success if at least one die is Less Than (<) the Area Difficulty (DA).
3	Locked Gate	Roll 2d6. Success if at least one die Equals (=) the Area Difficulty (DA).
4	Rest Stop	Recover +2  and +2  .
5	Hidden Cache	Recover +4  OR +4  .
6	Survival Manual	Add +1 Charge to an unlocked Survival Feat.

Success vs. Failure

Success: Gain the Survival Instinct  listed for the current Area. If you reach 4 , you Level Up.

Failure: You take the Damage  listed for the current Area. Subtract this from your .

III. SURVIVAL FEATS (Skills)

Spend  to trigger these abilities. You must be at the required Level to use them.

UNLOCK (Leveling):

- Earn 1  per successful Challenge.
- Reach 4  to Level Up.
- You can only use Feats at or below your current Level.

CHARGE (Slots):

- New Feats start with 0 charges ☐.
- Roll a 6 (Manual) on the Encounter Table to fill 1 charge circle ☐ on any unlocked Feat.

USE (Activation):

- Spend Adrenaline equal to the Feat's Level.
- Mark off 1 Charge ☒.
- Apply the effect to your current roll.

	LEVEL	FEAT	COST	EFFECT
	Lv. 1	"Lucky Break"	1 	Change a die result by +1 or -1.
	Lv. 3	"Sprint"	3 	Reroll any one die.
	Lv. 5	"Desperate Stand"	5 	Flip a die to its opposite side (e.g., a 1 becomes a 6).
	Lv. 7	"Field Medic"	7 	Immediately recover 2  .	+2

Gameplay Example: "Upon encountering the Slasher in a DA 4 area, your 2d6 roll of 2 and 4 results in a failure. To avoid taking 3 , you spend 1  and 1 ☒ to activate your unlocked Lucky Break (Lv 1) feat. By applying a +1 bonus to your 4, you modify the result to a 5, successfully beating the difficulty. This turning point transforms a lethal hit into a narrow escape, earning you 1  and allowing you to continue your survival journey."

IV. THE FINAL SHOWDOWN

Once you reach the end of Area VI (The Old Pier), you face the Slasher in a final struggle to start the boat motor.

You must land 5 successful hits to win.

The Test: Roll 2d6. Success if at least one die is a 5 or 6.

The Consequence: If you fail (both dice are 4 or lower), the Slasher deals 3  to you.

If you land 5 hits before your  hits 0, you escape. You win!

V. SURVIVAL TIPS

Backtracking: If you return to a square you already cleared, roll 1d6 for exploration with a -2 modifier. If it triggers a challenge, you only roll 1d6 to resolve it.

Adrenaline Management: Don't hoard your . Using a Level 1 feat to avoid a high-damage hit in the later levels is often the difference between life and death.
